

Plank Road Folk Music Society Presents
a Workshop with Mark Dvorak Saturday, May 11 – from 1:00-5:00 pm

Songwriting - Harmony Singing - Finger Picking

The goal of this multifaceted session is to explore critical elements in composing, writing and arranging. We'll cover the basics of finger picking guitar, examine chord structure and harmony singing and the use of melody and language in songwriting. Bring your instruments and be ready to go to work and discuss. Those who play instruments other than the guitar are welcome to attend, and those who don't play any instrument are also welcome!

Admission

$30 for the general public $20 for Plank Road members

Those interested can become members upon registration.

RSVP Please
j.shilt@comcast.net

Workshop Location

First Church of Lombard, 220 S Main St, Lombard, IL 60148

Enter from parking lot side.
Down the stairs and to the left.

ARTICULATION

practice
melody
tempo rhythm
songwriting
harmony fingerpicking
language tone
composition
intonation
bass runs
strumming
dynamics

Working to make music more whole.

www.markdvorak.com

Mark Dvorak is a musician, teacher and songwriter. When not on the road, he teaches at Chicago's Old Town School of Folk Music, where he's been on faculty since 1986. He has given concerts in almost all of the United States and has made visits to Finland, Canada and Ireland. To date, Dvorak has released sixteen albums of traditional and original music, including Waterbug's acclaimed Time Ain't Got Nothin' On Me.

For more information call (630)325-7764
email: reohanlon@gmail.com

Visit our websites: www.plankroad.org

