

cc rider

as sung by Mississippi John Hurt

You CC Rider, see what you have done you made me love you you made me love you made me love you and now your man done come

If I had a listened to my second mind
I wouldn't be sittin here wringing my hands and cryin
I wouldn't be sittin here wringing my hands and cryin
I wouldn't be sittin here wringing my hands and cryin (refrain)

There ain't no more potatoes the frost has killed the vine the blues ain't nothin but a good woman on your mind
the blues ain't nothin but a good woman on your mind the blues ain't nothin but a good woman on your mind (refrain)

I told you baby, your mama told you too you're three times seven you know what you want to do
you're three times seven you know what you want to do (refrain)
