

when did you leave heaven?

words & music by W. Bullock & R. Whiting. Published around 1936. As sung by Eric Clapton. Eric undoubtedly saw Bill Broonzy perform this song in the 1956 British short film, "Big Bill Blues."

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qDrMKfYdF-A>

When did you leave heaven, why did they let you go?	C	C	F	F how's everything up in heaven? I would love to know	C	A7	D7	G7
Why did you trade heaven for these earthly things?	C	C7	F	E7
when did you lose your little halo? baby, why'd you swap your wings? (2x)	F-F# ^o	C-A7	D7-G7	C-G C-C7
Now did they miss you? Oh, can you get back in?	F	F	C	C7
if I kissed you, would it be a sin?	F	F	D7	G7
I am only human but you are so divine	C	C7	F	E
when did you leave heaven, little angel mine?	F-F# ^o	C-A7	D7-G7	C-A7
little angel mine	D7-G7	C

C G B B

