

white freight liner

words & music by Townes Van Zandt

CC II            F            F            F            F            C            C            C            C
I'm goin out on the highway, listen to them big trucks whine

                  F            F            F            F            C            C            C            C
I'm goin out on the highway, listen to them big trucks whine

G            G            F            F            C            C            C            C
White Freight Liner won't you steal away my mind

                  F            F            F            F            C            C            C            C
New Mexico ain't bad Lord, people there will treat you kind

                  F            F            F            F            C            C            C            C
New Mexico ain't bad Lord, people there will treat you kind

G            G            F            F            C            C            C            C
white Freight Liner won't you steal away my mind

                  F            F            F            F            C            C            C            C
Well it's bad news from Houston, half my friends are dyin

                  F            F            F            F            C            C            C            C
well it's bad news from Houston, half my friends are dyin

G            G            F            F            C            C            C            C
white Freight Liner won't you steal away my mind

F            F            F            F            C            C            C            C
Lord I'm gonna ramble 'til I get back to where I came

F            F            F            F            C            C            C            C
Lord I'm gonna ramble 'til I get back to where I came

G            G            F            F            C            C            C            C
white Freight Liner gonna steal away my brain

                  F            F            F            F            C            C            C            C
I'm goin out on the highway, listen to them big trucks whine

                  F            F            F            F            C            C            C            C
I'm goin out on the highway, listen to them big trucks whine

G            G            F            F            C            C            C            C
White Freight Liner won't you steal away my mind

G            G            F            F            C            C            C            C
White Freight Liner won't you steal away my mind

G            G            F            F            C            C            C            C
White Freight Liner won't you steal away my mind

